

TEAMeffort Youth Mission Camps

Code of Conduct

Thank you for supporting your youth by leading them during the TEAMeffort Youth Mission Camp. One of the benefits of TEAMeffort Youth Mission Camps is that you and your students will worship, work, eat, lodge, and participate at camp with other youth groups from different churches and denominations as well as from different regions of the United States. As we partner together in Christian service, we strive to create a safe, respectful environment where each individual can grow in faith.

We want everyone to have a positive TEAMeffort Youth Mission Camp experience, so we ask each participant to follow this Code of Conduct. Please discuss this Code of Conduct with every student, parent, and adult leader before you come to camp so each person commits to safe and respectful behavior. We also ask each person to follow the rules specific to your camp location to maintain safety, punctuality, and respect. These camp specific rules will be shared at orientation after you arrive at camp, and they include restrictions on cell phone usage, the lights-out policy, and safety on the worksite.

1. TEAMeffort dress code is loose-fitting unaltered t-shirts and loose-fitting fingertip length shorts. Close-toed shoes must be worn on the mission project worksite. Undergarments should not be visible and clothing should be properly fastened. Hemlines on shorts or skirts must be at least fingertip length. We do not allow tank tops, spaghetti strap shirts, halter tops, tube tops, or two-piece bikini bathing suits. When swimming, women must wear a modest one-piece suit or a tankini-style suit that covers the torso and midriff (front, sides, and back); men must wear t-shirts when not in the swimming area.
2. TEAMeffort does not permit the use of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs at the TEAMeffort host facility or any associated TEAMeffort camp activities.
3. TEAMeffort asks each participant to be respectful of other people, other groups, and TEAMeffort staff. TEAMeffort does not permit offensive language or profanity; behavior that interferes or threatens camp activities; behavior that threatens the health or safety of another person; or pranks that harass another person or damage property. Individuals or groups will be held responsible for destruction or damage to property.
4. TEAMeffort discourages public displays of affection and discourages students from isolating themselves from their group, adult leaders, or camp activities. Sexual advances and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature is not permitted.

By signing this document, I agree to review these policies with all students, parents, and adult leaders. I also commit myself and each member of my group to abide by this Code of Conduct. I agree to cooperate with the Camp Director to resolve any issues in a timely manner.
